

2022 Credentials Document

Meet the team...

Dimensions' talents are diverse and range from Creative concepts to final execution and fulfilment without the heavy price-tag associated with traditional Ad Agencies. Services include traditional above-the-line advertising campaigns as well as below-the-line activities ranging from staging conferences and events, production and print management to Promotions and Corporate Brand development.

Digital design, E-Marketing, Social Media campaigns, Website development and Online database management are integral components of our 360 degree service offering.

DIMENSIONS' VISION & MISSION:

To provide the best possible professional, personalised service by individual communications specialists to select clients based on mutual respect, for just reward, at a market-related rate.

Returning control to the Client

At Dimensions we believe in mutual respect. Clients play a crucial role in supporting and trusting team efforts to achieve goals. We avoid business that is being irresponsibly managed or dealing with questionable suppliers as we ultimately become the fall guys.

Personal Attention & Expertise

SME's have limited time and resources to locate and combine the correct group of specialised talents and services, prepare a Marketing strategy, and finally oversee and implement all the facets required to launch and manage a marketing campaign successfully.

- Dimensions delivers at a justifiable price - on agreement and approval by client - within the constraints of a set budget where possible, or on approval of an accurate Estimate.
- We operate as principals in law on behalf of our clients and expect full support and disclosure – it's a two-way street!.

Why Dimensions Digital Marketing is your ideal strategic marketing partner

- We provide a 360 degree portfolio of through-the-line services
- One brief is all that is required.
- Associates are hand-picked for talent and expertise.
- Lean and mean - geared to grow with business partners
- Well respected for our integrity and creativity.

Personal Client Service Team:

Clients deal on a personal level through a single senior team member regarding all advertising, strategic marketing, web maintenance, e-marketing, events, promotions and public relations requirements.

Operations Services and Expertise

1. Dimensions:

Roland Deale - Managing Director and founder of Dimensions Marketing with over 40 years' experience drives the strategic and creative concepts. His vast experience and understanding is evident in his writing and communication skills that cater to a wide range of clients and industries.

Roland is a master of strategic brand communication solutions with emphasis on experiential and database driven e-marketing strategies.

Strategic Marketing is behind every successful campaign to which end we draw on our own talent and that of our associates. We get a kick out of doing the impossible and have built many long-term relationships based on trust and respect with our clients.

Dimensions don't profess to be the panacea of the industry, therefore we work closely together with preferred suppliers that measure up to our exacting standards.

3. Photographic Dimensions:

Our studio is capable of handling most commercial, industrial and retail assignments as a valuable in-house service available to clients.

Catalogues and adverts requiring product / pack shots, annual reports, brochures, advertisements etc. are all directed and captured in studio or on location. Where specialist techniques such as styling, makeup, props or food styling are required, these are outsourced through competent associates.

Storyboards for Video productions and TV commercials are all conceptualised, planned, scripted, produced, directed and edited by our digital production and animation specialist, creative director and copywriters

Local vernacular and foreign languages, traditions, rural and urban lifestyles are taken into account for TV commercials, Corporate induction videos as well as POP demo AVI clips, stings and Digital Computer animation.

4. Media Planning, Placement and Research.

Dimensions works in close co-operation with various internationally respected media agencies when required to reserve and place advertising for major campaigns. Targeted research, and analytical evaluation is conducted prior to media placement.

This covers all media – print and electronic. We also deal directly with media in negotiating and placing snap campaigns and sponsorship agreements.

5. Print, production and Fulfilment

The agency's wealth of expertise and technical knowledge is available to brief suppliers and source quotations for services and marketing collateral. Accurate Cost Estimates are prepared for goods and services from reputable preferred suppliers, ensuring that they remain competitive at all times.

Production of Advertising materials and print ready files as well as all material conversions to meet supplier's specifications is handled in house.

6. Local Events, Promotions and New Product launches.

Dimensions provides a turnkey operation to handle all events in their entirety or source additional manpower in support of in-house operations by calling on our associates or finding suitable short term staff.

Corporate functions, product launches, Incentives and sales conferences all require special expertise and brand appreciation to ensure success. Venue hire and liaison, draping and décor, technical support, lighting, staging and production management are areas in which we are extremely proficient.
